

Hello all and a Happy New Year.
Each New Year brings a fresh start and a chance to improve and move forward, we love it!!

Here at Kilronan it is no different.

Our very first Open day for schools & colleges in north county Dublin happened this month and was a great success with lots of positive feedback. For all our regular clients, lessons will be geared towards improving riders with exercises and training to keep you on your toes.

Johnny O Connell has taken on the Thursday evening lessons. Johnny has over 25 years of competition experience and a unique coaching approach to teaching. Lessons are at 7pm & 8pm. These are geared towards the intermediate and advanced rider.

Adult workshops were a great success last year, so if you missed them or want to give them a go, we have beginner & intermediate workshops for adults coming up in February & March.

Beginner Adult Workshop.

Sunday 5th Feb @ 2.30 -5.30

Sunday 4th March @ 2.30 – 5.30

Cost €40

This is suitable for a complete beginner or anyone who wishes to get back into horse riding.

This workshops aim is to teach you basic instincts and reactions of these wonderful animals, alongside practical tasks such as grooming and leading. Feeling comfortable on the ground beside the horse gives you greater confidence when riding.
